

PHYSICIAN ASSOCIATE TEACHING PROGRAMME

9am-4pm, 25th November 2022
In the Education Centre

Delivered by

Mr Romaih Al-Idari

Trust Physician Associate Lead & Emergency Department Consultant

Sepsis is a potentially life-threatening condition that affects an estimated 250,000 people per year and is a significant cause of preventable morbidity and mortality.

To confirm your attendance on this learning session, please email Julie Summers, Undergraduate Manager at Julie.summers4@nhs.net

MORNING SESSION (F2F or Virtual)

9-10am	Introduction to Sepsis
10-11am	Sepsis 6
11am-12pm	Antibiotics in Sepsis
12pm-12.45pm	Lunch Provided

AFTERNOON SESSION – SKILLS STATIONS (F2F)

Station 1	Sepsis Scenario
Station 2	Ultrasound venous access and intraosseous access
Station 3	Airway management

