

How do I access support from Children's Services Support Hub, and what happens next?

The current referral mechanism, The Children's Social Care referral form (MARF) and the Children Family Wellbeing Request for support form will be replaced by the Children's Services Request for Support Form. This will be an eForm and will allow an accessible way for professionals to request support or raise safeguarding issues to the Hub.

