Dear Mr

Thank you for your request for information.

Your Request

I am enquiring from xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx, where we host a subscription-based service called xxxxxxxxxx. We collect and collate formulary and guidelines from across the UK, consistently organising them into our system so our users can easily understand their local healthcare economy.

We have managed to find the DVT anticoagulant guidelines from other areas of the UK, but not from Blackpool. Could you please speak with your senior managers and provide me with the guidelines I'm after, if possible?
